Pharmac India 2017, a colossal exhibition dedicated to the pharmaceutical industry is all set to start from 7th to 9th November 2017, at the Gujarat University Exhibition and Convention Center Ahmedabad.

Shri H. G. Koshia, Commissioner, Food and Drug

Administration (Gujarat) and Shri Arvind Kukrety, Deputy DCGI (Ahmedabad Zone), Government of India will grace the inaugural ceremony.

Gujarat accounts for 33% of the national pharmaceuticals market. Its contribution is expected to grow and touch 40% by 2020 as the benefits of GST trickle in and a skewed tax structure is ruled out. There will be specific discussions on procurement in the pharmaceuticals industry and opportunities for contract manufacturers and engineering industries in Gujarat in the post-GST era.
